EXPLANATORY STATEMENT

This Explanatory Statement has been prepared for the information of Shareholders of the Company in relation to the business to be conducted at the Company's Meeting.

The purpose of this Explanatory Statement is to provide Shareholders with information that is reasonably required by Shareholders to decide how to vote upon the resolutions. The Directors recommend that Shareholders read this Explanatory Statement before determining whether or not to support the Resolutions.

BUSINESS OF THE MEETING

Item 1: Financial Statements and Reports

The Financial Report, Directors' Report and the Independent Auditor's Report for the financial year ended 30 June 2013 will be laid before the Meeting.

Together, the Financial Report, Directors' Report and the Independent Auditor's Report constitute the Company's 2013 Annual Report. Unless the Company's Share Registry has been notified otherwise, Shareholders will not be sent a hard copy of the Annual Report. All shareholders can view the 2013 Annual Report on the Company's website (www.rubicor.com.au) under Investors/Annual Reports.

Following the consideration of the Reports, the Chairman will give Shareholders a reasonable opportunity to ask questions about or comment on the management of the Company.

The Chairman will also give Shareholders a reasonable opportunity to ask the Auditor questions relevant to:

- the conduct of the audit;
- the preparation and content of the Independent Auditor's Report;
- the accounting policies adopted by the Company in relation to the preparation of the financial statements; and
- the independence of the Auditor in relation to the conduct of the audit.

The Chairman will also give the Auditor a reasonable opportunity to answer written questions submitted by Shareholders that are relevant to the content of the Independent Auditor's Report or the conduct of the audit. A list of written questions, if any, submitted by Shareholders will be made available at the start of the Meeting and any written answer tabled by the Auditor at the Meeting will be made available as soon as practicable after the Meeting.

Item 2: Remuneration Report

Section 250R(2) of the Corporations Act requires the shareholders to vote on an advisory resolution that the Remuneration Report be adopted.

For personal use only

The Remuneration Report:

- explains Rubicor's remuneration policy and the correlation between the remuneration of employees and Rubicor's performance;
- reports the remuneration arrangements for Directors, Key Management Personnel and other Executives; and
- makes clear that the basis for remunerating Non-Executive Directors is distinct from the basis for remunerating Executives, including Executive Directors.

The Report is available from page 14 in the Company's 2013 Annual Report which is available on the Company's website (www.rubicor.com.au) under "Investors/Annual Reports".

If there is a vote of 25% or more against the Remuneration Report, and another vote of 25% or more at the 2014 AGM, then a resolution will be put to the 2014 AGM to put the Board up for re-election.

Voting Exclusion:

The Company will disregard any votes cast on Resolution 2 in contravention of section 250R or 250BD of the Corporations Act:

- by or on behalf of a member of the Key Management Personnel whose remuneration is included in the Remuneration Report;
- by or on behalf of a closely related party (such as close family members and any controlled companies) of a member of Key Management Personnel whose remuneration is included in the Remuneration Report; or
- as a proxy of any of the above.

However, the Company need not disregard a vote cast on Resolution 2 if it is cast:

- as a proxy for a person who is entitled to vote, in accordance with the directions (For, Against or Abstain) on the proxy appointment and in accordance with the exception under section 250BD of the Corporations Act; or
- by the Chairman of the Meeting as an undirected proxy where the Chairman has been expressly authorised to exercise the proxy even if the resolution is directly or indirectly connected with the remuneration of a member of the Key Management Personnel.

The Directors abstain, in the interests of corporate governance, from making a recommendation in relation to this resolution.

Item 3: Re-election of Steven Hatch

The Board appointed Steven Hatch as a director of the Company pursuant to clause 19.4 of the Constitution on 3 September 2013.

In accordance with clause 19.5 of the Constitution, Steve must retire from office at the 2013 AGM – but will remain acting as a Director of the Company during the AGM. He is eligible for re-election as a Director of the Company and offers himself for re-election.

Steve is a Non-Executive Director of the Company. He is also a member of the Audit and Risk Management Committee, the Remuneration and Human Resources Committee and the Nomination and Corporate Governance Committee.

Steve has more than 10 years experience in the management of and consulting to a large number of companies across Employment Services, Talent Management and Training.

Steve is a founder of the J2S Group a leading training and talent management company. Throughout his tenure at J2S, Steve took over a number of distressed businesses and restructured them to form the basis of the J2S Group. J2S was contracted by the federal government to design and deliver a program for recruitment and employment services companies on the benefits of employing mature aged workers in association with the RCSA (Recruitment and Consulting Services Association Australia & New Zealand). J2S was later awarded a further contract under the Wise Workforce program to promote mature aged employment to employers.

Steve has been involved in managing a large number of business restructurings, the most recent being a large international hospitality training and recruitment company under severe financial pressure.

Steve holds a Master of Education in Adult Education and a Master of Online Education.

The Directors, with Steve abstaining, unanimously recommend that Shareholders vote in favour of this Resolution.

Item 4: Approval of the Employee Share Option Plan

In February 2006 (and as amended on 24 April 2007), the Board of the Company established an Employee Share Option Plan (ESOP) to attract, retain and motivate eligible employees by offering them an opportunity to participate in the Company's future performance through awards of Options.

The ESOP had been designed to provide specific recognition to employees whose ongoing commitment contributes to the long term success of the Company. The award of options to acquire ordinary shares in the capital of the Company (Options) gives eligible employees the opportunity to become shareholders in the Company and acknowledges and rewards those employees' contributions to the Company.

The ESOP was last approved by shareholders at the Company's AGM held on 25 November 2010. Since the establishment of the ESOP, the Company has granted a total of 7,190,467 Options under the ESOP. As at 20 September 2013 there are 4,114,369 Options on issue under the ESOP. The maximum number of Options on issue cannot exceed 5% of the Company's issued capital, or 5,531,400. Therefore 1,417,031 Options are available for issue.

A summary of key terms of the ESOP is set out in Annexure A to the Explanatory Statement.

Corporations Act Requirements

Section 260A of the Corporations Act provides that a company may financially assist a person to acquire shares (or units in shares) in the company or a holding company of the company only if:

- giving the assistance does not materially prejudice the interests of the company or its shareholders or the company's ability to pay its creditors;
- the assistance is approved by shareholders under section 260B; or
- the assistance is exempted under section 260C.

Section 260C(4) of the Corporations Act, provides that financial assistance is exempted from section 260A if it is given under an employee share scheme that has been approved by a resolution passed at a general meeting of the company adopting the employee share scheme. The definition of "employee share scheme" in section 9 of the Corporations Act extends to include a scheme such as the ESOP.

Resolution 4, if passed, will allow options to be granted (and shares to be issued on exercise of those options) under the ESOP for three years after the date of the general meeting without the requirement to obtain shareholder approval for the giving of financial assistance. In this context, the "financial assistance" under the ESOP is the granting of options for nil consideration to an eligible employee of the Company to obtain shares in the Company.

ASX Listing Rules Requirements

Pursuant to ASX Listing Rule 7.1, a listed company is generally prevented from issuing more securities (including shares and options) than would equate to (when all other securities are aggregated) 15% of its share capital in any twelve month period, without first obtaining shareholder approval.

Under Exception 9(b) of ASX Listing Rule 7.2, an issue of securities under an employee incentive scheme is an exception to Listing Rule 7.1 if, within three years before the date of the issue, holders of ordinary securities have approved the issue of shares as an exception to Listing Rule 7.1.

If approved, any Options issued under the ESOP in the three years following the Meeting will not reduce the Company's capacity to issue further securities under ASX Listing Rule 7.1. Resolution 7 is being put to shareholders for this purpose and will allow the Company to utilise ASX Listing Rule 7.2 (Exception 9(b)) for three years from the date that Resolution 7 is passed.

Prior specific shareholder approval will be required before any Director or a related party of the Company can participate in the ESOP, pursuant to ASX Listing Rule 10.14.

A Voting Exclusion Statement is set out under the Resolution in the Notice of Meeting.

The Directors abstain, in the interests of corporate governance, from making a recommendation in relation to this resolution.

Item 5: Reinstatement of proportional takeover provision in Constitution

Under the Corporations Act, a company may include in its constitution a provision to enable the company to refuse to register shares acquired under a proportional takeover bid unless a resolution is passed by shareholders in a general meeting approving the offer.

The Company's Constitution adopted before the Company's listing on ASX contained a proportional takeover provision in clause 13 "Proportional Takeover Bids". However that provision automatically ceased to have effect three years after the date of its adoption. Accordingly, this provision was reinstated at the 2010 AGM and will cease to have effect three years after it was reinstated (i.e. on 25 November 2013).

The provision is designed to assist shareholders to receive proper value for their shares if a proportional takeover bid is made for the Company. Accordingly, the Directors consider that it is in the best interests of Shareholders to reinstate that provision into the Company's Constitution. If the proposed resolution in Item 5 is passed, the proportional takeover provision (on the same terms as clause 13 of the Company's current Constitution) will be reinstated for a period of three years from the time the resolution is passed.

The Corporations Act requires that the following information be provided to shareholders when they are considering the inclusion of a proportional takeover provision in a company's constitution.

Effect of proposed provision

The effect of clause 13 is that if a proportional takeover bid is made to shareholders, the Directors are obliged to convene a meeting of shareholders to be held before the 14th day before the last day of the bid period (approving resolution deadline). The purpose of the meeting is to vote upon a resolution to approve the proportional takeover bid. For the resolution to be approved, more than 50 per cent of the votes must be cast in favour of the resolution. The bidder and its associates are not entitled to vote on the resolution. Each other person who, as at the end of the day on which the first offer under the proportional takeover bid was made, held bid class shares, is entitled to vote on the resolution.

If no such resolution is voted on before the approving resolution deadline, the resolution is deemed to have been approved. This, in effect, means that shareholders as a body may only prohibit a proportional takeover bid by rejecting such a resolution.

If the resolution is approved or deemed to have been approved, transfers of shares under the proportional takeover bid (provided they are in all other respects in order for registration) must be registered.

If the resolution to approve the bid is voted on before the approving resolution deadline and is rejected, registration of any transfer of shares resulting from that proportional takeover bid are prohibited and the offer is deemed by the Corporations Act to have been withdrawn. If the bid is approved (or taken to be have been approved) the transfers must be registered if they comply with the Corporations Act and the Company's Constitution.

The renewed clause 13 will expire three years after its adoption unless renewed by a further special resolution of shareholders.

A proportional takeover provision does not apply to full takeover bids.

Reasons for proposing the resolution

Without the proportional takeover provision, a proportional takeover bid may enable control of the Company to pass without shareholders having the opportunity to sell all of their shares to the bidder. Shareholders may be exposed to the risk of being left as minority shareholders in the Company and of the bidder being able to acquire control of the Company without payment of an adequate control premium for their shares.

The proposed proportional takeover provision lessens this risk because it allows shareholders to decide whether a proportional takeover bid is acceptable (in principle) and should be permitted to proceed.

No knowledge of any acquisition proposals

As at the date of this Notice, no Director is aware of any proposal by any person to acquire, or to increase the extent of, a substantial interest in the Company.

Potential advantages and disadvantages for the Directors and shareholders

While the reinstatement of clause 13 will allow Directors to ascertain the view of shareholders on any proportional takeover bid, it does not otherwise offer any advantage or disadvantage to the Directors who remain free to make their own recommendations as to whether the bid should be accepted.

The Directors consider that it is a potential advantage to all shareholders that they have the opportunity to consider and vote on any proposed proportional takeover bid at a general meeting. For a proportional takeover bid to be approved, it must be approved by more than half of the shares voted at the meeting excluding the shares of the bidder and its associates. This may assist to ensure a potential bidder formulates its offer in a way that would be attractive to a majority of shareholders, including appropriate pricing. It may also have the effect of not allowing control of the Company to pass without payment of a control premium.

As to the possible disadvantages of clause 13, it may be perceived that the provision may impose a hurdle on the success of, and may discourage the making of, proportional takeover bids for shares in the Company. This may be thought to potentially remove or reduce any speculative element of the market price of the Company's shares arising from the possibility of a proportional takeover bid and reduce opportunities for shareholders to sell some of their shares at a premium. The presence of clause 13 may also be considered an additional restriction on the ability of individual shareholders to deal freely with their shares.

During the period in which the previous proportional takeover provision was in effect, the advantages and disadvantages outlined above have applied.

The Board considers that the potential advantages for shareholders of the proportional takeover bid provision outweigh the potential disadvantages.

The Directors unanimously recommend that Shareholders vote in favour of this Resolution.

- The Board may make an Award to any Eligible Employee (or is or her nominees, as approved by the Board) on receipt of an acceptance of an Award Invitation in a form approved by the Board.
- Awards will generally be made for no more than nominal consideration.

- Ordinary shares issued on the exercise of an Option entitle its holder to be issued fully paid ordinary shares (Shares).
- If a Participant who receives Options under the ESOP suffers a change of control or ownership, then the Board may require that the Option be immediately transferred to a person determined by the Board.

Limit of Options

- The Board may issue up to $1,000 worth of Shares to each or any Eligible Employee for no consideration up to two times per calendar year (Gift).
- The maximum number of Options that may be granted under an Award Invitation or Gift offer at any one time (as calculated in accordance with the ESOP), must not exceed 5% of the Company's issued share capital.

- If, prior to the exercise of an Option, the Company makes a bonus issue to holders of its Shares and an Option is not exercised prior to the record date for determining entitlements to that bonus issue, the Option will, when exercised, entitle the Participant to one Share plus the number of bonus Shares which would have been issued to the Participant if the Option had been exercised prior to the relevant record date.

Reorganisation of capital

- If, prior to the exercise of an Option, the Company undergoes a reorganisation of capital (other than by way of a bonus issue or issue for cash), the terms of the Options of the Participant will be amended to the extent necessary to comply with the ASX Listing Rules as they apply at the relevant time.

Takeover bid

- If a takeover bid is made to acquire all of the issued Shares of the Company, or a scheme of arrangement, selective capital reduction or other transaction is initiated which has an effect similar to a full takeover bid for all of the issued Shares in the Company, then each Participant is entitled to accept the takeover bid or participate in the other transaction in respect of all or part of their Options. The Board may, in its discretion, waive unsatisfied conditions relating to some or all of the Options in the event of such a takeover or other similar transaction.

Termination or amendment of ESOP

- The Board may at any time terminate or amend the ESOP, in accordance with applicable laws and the ASX Listing Rules.

The full Terms and Conditions of the ESOP are available on the website of the Company (www.rubicorgroup.com.au), under "About Us" then "Corporate Governance".

Votes on Items of Business - Proxy Appointment

You may direct your proxy how to vote by placing a mark in one of the boxes opposite each item of business. All your shares will be voted in accordance with such a direction unless you indicate only a portion of voting rights are to be voted on any item by inserting the percentage or number of shares you wish to vote in the appropriate box or boxes. If you do not mark any of the boxes on the items of business, your proxy may vote as he or she chooses. If you mark more than one box on an item your vote on that item will be invalid.

Appointment of a Second Proxy

You are entitled to appoint up to two persons as proxies to attend the meeting and vote on a poll. If you wish to appoint a second proxy, an additional Proxy Form may be obtained by telephoning the company's share registry or you may copy this form and return them both together. The appointment of the Chairman of the Meeting as your alternate proxy also applies to the appointment of the second proxy.
