BEAUMONT PEOPLE

Beaumont People is a successful, privately owned Australian company specialising in Recruitment, Career Coaching, Transition and Workplace Related Workshops to all industry sectors.

We are proud of our achievements since the Company's inception in 2001 and of the many rewarding career opportunities we have offered to employees along the way.

In a commercial recruitment industry first, the Not-for-Profit (NFP) team was established in 2009 to deliver specialist recruitment, coaching and outplacement services to the charities, associations and memberships sector resulting in significant, long-term networks and recognition as the industry leader in the NFP sector.

WE BELIEVE IN PLACING PEOPLE FIRST.

It's how we work with our customers and the way we contribute to the communities in which we are involved that sets us apart. We exist to connect people with organisations that empower them to do meaningful work and to create more opportunities for meaningful work in Australia.

Beaumont People was recognised as 4th Best Place To Work in Australia for under 100 employees in 2020.

A TAILORED APPROACH

WELCOME

We are all unique with individual desires and situations. To cater for this we work in a tailored way, equipping people with tools specific to their needs, in real-time, and in a location convenient to them.

We use the Glow Up platform which exists to support your employees. Our network of Accredited Coaches provide face-to-face and video-enabled advice for staff at any stage of their careers. Personalised support supplemented by a digital resource library, to build confidence, resilience and prepare people for their future.

TRANSITION TRANSFORMED

Our Career Transition programs are based on a foundation of values-based-thinking.

Each participant has the opportunity to undertake a values, strengths and career assessment, helping them to set their future goals for the short, medium and long term.

We focus on the outcome they seek, individual by individual, with recruitment industry connectivity to ensure success. As a result, each program is tailored towards achieving these goals, and is unique to every participant. Our bespoke learning is embedded in a personalised and adaptive way.

STRENGTHS

REALISE YOUR POTENTIAL

By knowing more about your strengths, you can understand what really motivates you. Use these insights to shape your personal and career success by doing more of what you enjoy and less of what you don't and gain an understanding of how to leverage your unrealised Strengths in order to transition more effectively.

Strengths Profile is a world-leading strengths tool that changes the way we assess, develop and leverage talent in people. The Strengths assessment is conducted online, takes about 30 minutes, and afterwards a one-hour debrief of the results is conducted. The assessment measures 60 strengths across the dimensions of performance, energy and use.

EACH BESPOKE SESSION INCLUDES:

- Online Strengths Profile assessment
- Detailed Strengths Profile report to take away
- Coaching sessions delivered via video conference with a strengths expert
