

5 Tips for Successful Remote Teaching

#1 When grading students, don't just provide grades but offer helpful feedback for them to improve.

#2 Minimise online meetings and be mindful of the different capacities and availabilities.

#3 Modify your lessons according to students' needs and availabilities.

#4 Be graceful. Always assume positive intentions be it in colleagues, students, parents, or even yourself.

#5 Make instructions easy to fathom by keeping it simple with a maximum limit of 2-3 sentences.
